

Winners of the triple j Unearthed Top Song competition announced for Song Summit Sydney

19 March 2008: Australia's youth music network triple j is proud to announce the winners of the triple j Unearthed Top Song competition. Eight lucky songwriters have been chosen to attend APRA's inaugural Song Summit Sydney (S3) music expo in Sydney from April 3 - 5.

The criteria for the collaboration between triple j and S³ were simple. triple j was on the prowl to unearth a TOP SONG from each territory and state from around the country. S³ wanted to provide a perfect forum for up-and-coming songwriters to learn, network and create new working relationships.

Mission accomplished!

triple j's Music Director Richard Kingsmill said, "triple j Unearthed had an overwhelming response to this competition. We were inundated with over 700 entries on triplejunearthed.com. Picking the winners was also a challenge as there was such great talent to choose from!"

Representing each state and territory of Australia, the 8 winners will travel to Sydney to attend the 3 day S³ music conference. They will also take part in an exclusive up close and personal 'Masterclass' hosted by Lindsay "The Doctor" McDougall and featuring very special guest JAMES MERCER from THE SHINS. This exclusive 'Masterclass' will also be filmed for an episode of triple j TV.
